

Proclamation
OFFICE OF MAYOR FRANK G. JACKSON
City of Cleveland, Ohio

In recognition of
Bishop Floyd Eugene Perry, Jr.
Street Rededication

Whereas, on behalf of the citizens of the City of Cleveland, I am honored to offer this Proclamation in recognition of the ceremonial rededication of a portion of Lamontier Avenue from Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive to Woodhill Road as "Bishop F. E. Perry Way" in the City of Cleveland; and,

Whereas, a dedicated public, community and faithful servant, Bishop Perry left a positive and lasting impact on the people of Cleveland. From his service in the United States Army to his leadership of the Cathedral Church of God In Christ for 58 years, his service was tireless; and,

Whereas, Bishop Perry was truly committed to ministering to people of all races and denominations. He was diligent in his efforts to meet the spiritual needs of mankind and serve all people as a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. A humanitarian in the truest form, his efforts to improve the Cleveland community were unmatched. He was a natural leader, Man of God, and most of all, a friend to many; and,

Whereas, Bishop Perry was a remarkable man. He left a legacy of service and inspired so many people through his work. He was a generous and loving man and his contributions to the Cleveland community will never be forgotten.

Now therefore, I, Frank G. Jackson, the 56th Mayor of the City of Cleveland, do hereby offer this Proclamation in recognition of the rededication of "Bishop F. E. Perry Way" in his honor. I invite all Clevelanders to join me in commemorating the legacy of Bishop Perry through this street dedication. Let us continue to honor Bishop Perry's memory through service to others in our community.

In witness thereof, I have set my hand and caused the Corporate Seal of the City of Cleveland to be affixed on this 2nd day of December in the year 2015.
