Cleveland Firefighter Arrested for a Third Time in Two-Days

Firefighter arrested for third time for disorderly conduct

CLEVELAND – Cleveland Division of Police Chief Calvin D. Williams and Division of Fire Chief Angelo Calvillo announce that a Cleveland firefighter was arrested for a second time today for disorderly conduct at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport located at 5300 Riverside Drive. The incident occurred just before noon.

Fire Battalion Chief William Graham was arrested by Cleveland Police. Following his arrest he was conveyed to an area hospital after again complaining of an illness and remains hospitalized at the time of this release.

Graham is a 30 year veteran of the Division of Fire. These incidents are being investigated by the Department of Public Safety.

Any additional information will be posted under trending topics in the Cleveland Public Records Center.
